

Programme

International Scientific Conference
PROBLEMS OF LANDSCAPE PROTECTION AND MANAGEMENT IN XXI CENTURY,
April 20 – 22, 2017 WULS-SGGW,
Warsaw, Poland

April 20, 2017 (Thursday)

9.00 – 10.30 Registration desk open – building No. 37, basement (floor -1, room 0/106)

10.30 – 11.00 Welcome

11.00 – 13.00 Plenary Session

Keynote Speakers:

11.00 -11.40 Prof. Simon Bell, University of Edinburgh, Estonian University of Life Sciences

Landscape character sensitivity and capacity as tools for accommodating infrastructure and other developments in the landscape

11.40- 12.05 Prof. Paulo Farinha- Marques, University of Porto

Disturbed, restored and novel ecosystems - concepts and practices challenging landscape planning, design and management in the XXI century.

12.05 – 12.20 Tea/Coffee Break

Keynotes Speakers:

Godz 12.20-12.40 Dr hab. Zbigniew Karaczun, Associate Professor, Warsaw University of Life Sciences-SGGW
Environmental challenges in XXI century.

Godz 12.40-13.00 Dr hab. Barbara Żarska, Associate Professor, Warsaw University of Life Sciences-SGGW

Legal instruments for landscape protection and management in Poland in the light of environmental challenges in XXI century.

13.00-14.00 lunch time

14.00-14.20 Challenge and Opportunity for Landscape Architecture in Air Protection in Humanosphere - Stanisław Gawroński, Helena Gawrońska

14.20-14.35 Contemporary greening or redefining green heritage in rural landscapes, Estonia - Jaan Liira

14.35-14.50 Landscape capacity assessment as a tool for land use planning – a case study of Sulistrowice village within Wrocław Metropolitan Area, Poland - Piotr Krajewski, Karol Mrozik

14.50-15.05 Anthropogenic influence in the reduction and fragmentation of the Fog-ecosystem Lomas of Atiquipa in south Peru - Sabogal Ana

15.05-15.20 A trial of practical method for using personal memories in landscape protection and management, Japan - Kaoru Ono

15.20-15.35 People-environment relations in Albania and their impact on the management of socio-geographical space, Albania - Sokol Axhemi

15.35-15.50 – Selected issues of slopes protection in urban green areas in Poland - Andrzej Długoński

15.50-16.05 coffe/tee break

16.05-16.20 Correlation between community formation function and building in direct sales store, Japan - Shinya Abe

16.20-16.35 Spatial analysis of agricultural greenhouse gas emission at LAU-2 level across Poland - Elżbieta Wójcik-Gront, Marcin Olik

16.35-16.50 Management and restitution of urban forest in landscape urban planning of urban and suburb areas, Poland - Alicja Bieske - Matejak

16.50-17.05 Disappearing urban landscapes. Urban wastelands protection and management in contemporary cityscape of block-of-flats settlements in Warsaw, Poland - Beata Gawryszewska

17.05-17.20 Towards green infrastructure implementation in Warsaw – main priorities and problems from stakeholders perspective, Poland - Agata Cieszewska, Renata Giedych, Gabriela Maksymiuk, Piotr Wałdykowski, Joanna Adamczyk, Barbara Szulczewska

17.20-17.35 Improving flood protection, recreational potential and biodiversity through revitalisation of Lake Zgorzała, Poland - Tomasz Stańczyk

17.35-17.50 Nature conservation in Polish cities – the state and main challenges, Poland- Renata Giedych

17.50-18.05 Landscape valorisation model as a tool for support decision-making process, Poland - Iga Solecka, Beata Raszka

17.00 – 18.00 Poster session

18.05 - 18.20 Discussion

19.30 – Conference Dinner – Karpielówka restaurant

April 21, 2017 (Friday)

9.00 – 10.00 Registration desk open

10.00-10.15 The role of the village in strengthening the system of the green infrastructure WrOF the example of a selected village on the example of the village of Chrzanów, Poland - Jowita Pyszczek

10.15-10.30 Urban forests as refuges in ecological structure of Tarnów town, Poland - Beata Fornal - Pieniak, Marcin Ollik

10.30-10.45 Landscape as a tool for the integrated management of space in a rural commune, Poland - Anna Górka

10.45-11.00 Water management as an essential tool of resilient landscape protection in the cities, Poland - Marzena Suchocka, Kinga Kimic

11.00-11.15 Glacial landforms as potential objects of the geoconservation in the Burzava hummocky area, Latgale upland, Latvia - Valērija Rumjanceva, Juris Soms

11.15-11.30 The problems of cultural landscape protection - the case of Wilanów, Poland - Dorota Sikora

11.30-11.45 coffe/tee break

11.45-12.00 Urban trees data bases as a tool of sustainable nature management and protection systems in cities , Poland - Marzena Suchocka, Magdalena Błaszczyk, Gabriela Maksymiuk

12.00-12.15 How to measure the quality of green infrastructure for the city's effective spatial planning policy? Poland - Daria Sikorska

12.15-12.30 Sentimentalism and Monumentalism in creation of modern city landscape, Poland - Kinga Rybak-Niedziółka

12.30-12.45 Trees and shrubs for urban plantings: introduced or native species, Poland - Tatiana Swoczyna, Jacek Borowski, Piotr Latocha

12.45-13.00 Polish landscapes assessment procedure as a new tool of landscape diversity protection versus biological diversity protection, Poland - Małgorzata Kaczyńska, Izabela Dymitryszyn

13.00-13.15 Classification of urban green spaces for public participation – Pole Mokotowskie Park case study, Poland - Piotr Sikorski

13.15-13.45 Discussion

13.45-15.00 Lunch time

15.00 – Free evening

April 22, 2017 (Saturday)

Excursion to Kampinos National Park (from 7.45 to about 4 p.m.)

7.45 - Meeting (in front of building No. 37 on SGGW campus)